

over the six months it took to create this album, our collective lives descended into a bleak universe of depression, despair, and donuts. Somehow we persevered and shat out another collection of cacophonous torment... just in time for Halloween! We only had 20 minutes of material in the end, though, so the other 54 minutes of this CD are filled with compression, artifacts. We're sorry if this one sounds confused, we all had heatstroke in the studio. The turntable melted into the mixer, Grote's computer caught fire when one of the seven fans died, and it took four guitarists two hours to put together one damn chord sequence. Plus Chaz stubbed his toe. Android is convinced the studio was haunted, but we're pretty sure that's the lithium talking. We apologize to Doris for keeping her under the waterbed for as long as we did. Don't worry, no actual monkeys were hurt in the making of this, unless you count Mistah Peedahson.

Thanks to: Ben for THE POWER, Amber for putting up with the bodily waste and fountains of blood, Shawn for the missing battery, Kieran for the sax-whistle jam, alt-binaries.* for the infinite stream of digital crap, Doris for "The File", Goats R Us... for the goats, The Shaggin' Wagon for 300k miles, FDA Yellow #5 for the pretty colors, and... Uh, that's it. No, we're not forgetting anyone, the rest of you all suck.

Chaz: Honkomatic, knob-touching, cough, coffee, rockin chords
 Skat: Hoorigan, geetar, talent, bass, My First Keyboard
 Atek: Twangfoot, bass, realtime, Jive cats, craplicious Grote: Mix, dub, fix, edit, git, fud, pad, cut, rut, butt jokes, scum
 Android: The Fury, offkeys, PalmIII, Blasted Spinning Black Thing
